Jon 3.0 out of 5 stars Its impossible. Not fun. Im sure I could play and play and play and eventually become to the point of being competitive, but any game you ever try to play where you last about 20 seconds, average MAYBE one kill to your 10 or 15 getting killed, and that is a game not worth supporting with your time or money. This game is fun, though I found its another one of these where it seems like youre hiding from being completely killed as much as you are actually progressing forward. Also, there were too many parts where basically you could just make the game progress forward by running through a section rather than shooting guys. The storyline was epic as in the last one, though this time it seemed somehow less focused on the depth of things.

The single player campaign was interesting, but it felt like it was somehow more frantic then in the last game. Not fasterpaced particularly, but where you didnt get very many chances to just look at the scenery or maybe there just wasnt as much scenery this time. And it felt like you didnt really get into enough the overall overarching storyline. A countrys president gets kidnapped as well as someone close to them, but the reasoning is very cliché and you barely care. World War 3 is supposedly occurring due to a series of events, but they dont really truly delve into the full extent of whats happening around the globe. BUT ultimately you are kept in the game by simply partaking in the action. And while parts of the storyline do feel a bit shallow, I think this game is much more about the characters I guess of Soap, Price, and Yuri, so that is I think more of what youre following. Basically its like theres a chess game going on but while occasionally getting glimpses of the entire board youre mainly just looking at about three or four pieces. The single player campaign is somewhat short, but longer then the shortest games out there. Definitely longer then Homefront or Medal of Honor. The offline coop missions are becoming frustratingly rare these days, so getting to play any type of game where you can actually have a buddy sitting next to you and play is great. There were two different types of these coop games available one where it was basically a survive against waves of different types of baddies who got progressively harder, and the other was a similar thing to CODMW2 where you had set missions you needed to complete. And you can also do these as a single player, which I enjoyed doing on the survival missions. Bottomline if youre a huge fan of COD games youve probably already bought this one. I would simply say its not as good as Modern Warfare 2, but I would also say it is worth getting.We have satellite and cant play online.

We decided to purchase this as yet another set of maps with bots only to find that its multiplayer doesnt have them. But it has something equally as good for offline splitscreen and lan play. It has bots in waves and the feel is almost like the oldtime side scrollers, you play the match as far as you can and then have to start over. Its very worth it given the price of this game now. Very entertaining for the large percentage of rural people still lacking decent internet.I cant even remember the story from MW2 I only played this when me and my roommates were forced with the situation of our internet being down, let alone the story from MW1 I honestly cant remember if I even played the single player campaign or not. I cant provide a review to the single player yet, and at some time if I ever play it I will update this, but I can attest to the multiplayer. First off, I want to say that the multiplayer is much less impressive than the past installments of this game World at War excluded, but I guess that brought the zombie mode, so yes this might actually be the worst installment yet. The maps are larger, but they appear to be reduxes of previous maps from previous games. Am I guilty of this. Sure, but I only bought the game thanks to it being on sale from Amazon. In addition to the lack of originality in maps, theyve removed possibly one of my favorite game modes Gun Game and its variations. I hope the single player story is awesome, but I cant imagine it will be. Itll probably take my internet being down again to get through it, but that being said if you enjoy these games, buy them. WW1 American Revolution. In all honesty, FPS players on consoles and PC deserve better than this. I cant wait to see the reaction from people when MW3 releases a map pack that is the EXACT same as the ones theyve sampled to create these new levels. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. DLC SmokeFlare, QuantumMercu There are 77 Trophies that can be earned in this title. The game involves intense firefights across many countries such as Paris, New York and London. This time theres been a few added features to the game; first off is the new Survival mode which is much like Zombies from the previous COD titles.

You will have to face off against waves and waves of enemies and it gets harder each time, its manageable to reach wave 15 though. CODs critically acclaimed multiplayer is also back, this time theres a lot of added features such as the all new prestige shop and gun leveling, which awards players for using a gun more than other guns. However theres no trophies tied to multiplayer so if youre only playing for the platinum then you dont need to bother playing multiplayer. Theres no online trophies as youll be glad to know so the platinum wont take you too long. The campaign takes about 5hrs to complete on Recruit. Depending on your skills, about 8 10hrs for veteran. Good luck on your road to platinum and hope this guide helps! Completing it on veteran first will make it so you only have to do one playthrough. However if youve never played a Call of Duty game or any FPS before Id advise you not to start out on veteran, reason being is it can be hard at some points and requires skill and patience but if you feel you can do it then by all means do so. Its about the same difficulty as MW2 so if youve completed MW2s veteran you will have no trouble here. Some tips for veteran Use them as decoys, enemies will get distracted by them and you can pick the enemies off easier. However this doesnt always work. If an enemy has seen you then he will only go for you. Just pop one in a room to immobilise, blind and deafen them for a short period of time. At this point you can just run in all Rambo and blow them all away. You will also want to go for the chapter specific trophies in this playthrough too, try to get as much as you can of them to save you replaying any mission. None of them are that hard to get so you shouldnt have any problem with them. Also on your playthrough you will want to collect all enemy intel, theres 46 of them and they look like laptops, theyre not hidden that well so you may find these as you go through the story, or you can use the videos within the guide.

This will net you the Informant and Scout Leader. For more information on any trophy mentioned in this step please refer to the trophy guide for details. At the end of this step you should have all Story Related trophies and also all Mission Specific Trophies. Step 2 Survival mode New to MW3, survival mode sees the player defend against waves and waves of all sorts of enemies ranging from helicopters to dogs with explosives strapped to them. The trophies are pretty easy and you can do most of them by yourself. Getting to wave 15 isn't hard either. Powerpyx has written very detailed accounts and videos for each survival trophy so for more info please refer to the trophy guide. By the end of this step you should have, Birdie, Arms Dealer, Danger Zone, Defense Spending, Get Rich Or Die Trying, I Live, Survivor and Unstoppable. Step 3 Spec Ops On hardest difficulty There's 48 stars to be earned in MW3's spec ops mode. Some of these missions are brutal and will really test your skill. You can do these either by yourself or with a partner, doing it by yourself is much harder as there's nobody to revive you if you go down. I recommend getting a co op partner to do these or you can do it in split screen if you prefer. There's 16 special op missions and each gives you 3 stars for completing it on the hardest difficulty. For more info on any trophies related to this step refer to the trophy guide. The reason this is one of the last steps is that you may have already got most if them without even trying. Some though you actually need to go for, such as knifing 5 enemies in a row Doubt you'll be able to do this on veteran difficulty. For more info on these miscellaneous trophies please refer to the trophy guide. At the end of this step you should have all miscellaneous trophies which are, Strike!, Jack the Ripper and Serrated Edge. This will bring your total to 50 trophies and your platinum, congrats.

If for some reason you don't then continue on to step 5 Step 5 Clean up Missed a mission specific trophy. Didn't get a trophy relating to survival mode. Then now's your chance to go over what your missing and earn them. Look what trophies you are missing and look them up in the trophy guide for more info on them. Mission Select is available. Yes, 4 Skilled Negotiator, Shotgun Diplomacy, Slippery Slope, Ice in Your Veins First off, I would suggest going for the Shotgun Diplomacy and Slippery Slope trophies in Regular difficulty. It will make going for the Not on My Watch trophy much easier later on. Step Two Complete each mission on Veteran Difficulty. Now, after getting accustomed to the missions, go for the Veteran trophies. By following my suggestions below, you should do well. Don't forget to get into cover. It's probably the biggest annoyance for anyone, but it'll always be the biggest lifesaver in any attempt on Veteran. After accomplishing the gruelling fight on Veteran, Not on My Watch and A Bakers Dozen are your final objectives. Follow the strategies listed in the Trophy Guide and you will have obtained the first six DLC Trophies for Modern Warfare 3. Congratulations! Step 1 Beat Killswitch on Regular then Veteran You can speed through this mission in less than 5 minutes on regular. Whoever is better at sniping should take the overwatch position. The overwatch player can easily nab the Helipocalypse on either difficulty. Step 2 Beat Iron Clad on Regular and then Veteran I found this to be the harder of the 2 missions. You have to keep the tank alive as well yourself. The regular run through is very important to know where suicide bombers and RPGs are spawning in and attacking the tank. However there is a simple strategy that will net you all 3 trophies related to this mission in 1 go. There are no cheats Introduction This is the third Content Collection drop for Call of Duty Modern Warfare 3.

I don't think any of you reading this guide will have much problems because if you're here, it probably means you have platinumed the game and a pretty seasoned Call of Duty player. The trophies are pretty straightforward and I hope the guide will help you get that much annoying 100%. Walkthrough Arctic Recon Step 1 Complete Arctic Recon on Veteran which gives you Stay Frosty and Sub Zero. Step 2 Complete the Arctic Recon mission on Recruit to beat the 3.30 for dr0n3d Vertigo Step 1 Complete Vertigo on Veteran to get Apex and Pinnacle Step 2 Kill all the 3 Juggernauts on Veteran to get To Juggernaut or to Juggernaut You could do Steps 1 and 2 together to get 3 trophies in one playthrough if you attempt it together but the thing is, you would have to use your rockets on those three which gives you a problem when you jump off the roof and face multiple enemies as opposed to destroying the choppers and letting them drop. Step 3 Destroy all 16 helicopters for Flyswatter . Check out The Best of the Best for more details. If you use basic cover and pick enemies off one by one instead of going head first into firefights you will succeed. Theres no time limit, so take your time; dont rush. If youre ever out in the open you will die so always make sure you plan where youre going to move to next which has a good amount of cover. The checkpoints are a lot better in this than the previous CODs, they seem to be more paced and you can sort of predict when theyre going to appear. Use them as decoys, enemies will get distracted by them and you can pick the enemies of easier. If an enemy has seen you then he will only go for you. Just pop one in a room to immobilise, blind and deafen them for a short period of time. At this point you can just run in all Rambo and blow them all away. After leaving the start area and going down a set of stairs, you will come into a large courtyard. Run to the left side and take out the enemies that are in your way. 6 new enemies will come out of an alleyway and stop in front of a door. Throw your grenade right between them and you should easily kill 5 at once. Reload the Checkpoint and keep trying if you didnt get it the first time. All you need to do is to take out five enemies in a row by using your knife with. It doesnt matter if you do it during the story or while playing spec ops. However, its a lot easier to do this on Recruit Difficulty. You may not die in between the kills. You can replay each mission, so dont worry if you miss one. The intels look like computers. You can pick them up by pressing. Each mission in the game has at least one intel. The video below will show you all 46 intel locations Press to equip it. Make sure that you keep it all over the missions since you wont find another one.

Take out as many enemies as possible with one shot, you will get about 2 kills maybe more per shot depends on how grouped enemies are. Later on during the mission you can restore ammo at the ammo crates and receive full ammo for the XM25. Restart the checkpoint if you feel that you have done really badly at a part. Theres a lot more than 30 enemies across the mission so if you only use the XM25 you will have no trouble doing this. Its recommended to replay the mission on recruit when going for the trophy. You have a total of ONLY 20 Grenades and need to destroy 5 Helicopters. It takes 2 Shots per Helicopter to destroy it so make sure you zoom in and aim carefully. Also dont waste the grenades on the enemies on the ground, use your MG to take them out. If at any point you feel you have failed and have used too many grenades you can restart the checkpoint. Make sure that you destroy each vehicle with a single shot. Wait until they have stopped driving and are perfectly still, this will improve your chances of a direct hit. Restart the Checkpoint if you miss a vehicle. Once you breach into the area and get off the truck, you will be told to use air support. Dont kill any enemies yet, go to the left side and cover behind some crates to make sure you dont get killed. Activate the Chopper Gunner and kill everything you can as fast as possible. Enemies are marked red and easy to kill. If you can count how many enemies you have killed, its really not that hard and you may get it without even trying. Simply keep shooting all over to hit everyone you can. If at any point you feel you have messed up then reload the last checkpoint. Soon after receiving those grenades a couple helicopters will fly in and drop off enemy soldiers. Wait until the helicopter has stopped moving to drop enemies and quickly throw a smoke grenade underneath the helicopter.
